

Article Footnote:

Please note that the Saffir-Simpson scale differs a bit from the Australian scale used in the region and is based on 1-minute average maximum sustained winds while the Australian scale is based on peak wind gusts., and as such there are some differences in category numbering; for instance the low end of the Australian Category 5 equates to the high end of a Saffir-Simpson Category 4.